ALVARETTA KENAN REGISTER
September 4, 1907 - April 22, 1985

A native of Statesboro, Georgia, the late Alvaretta Kenan Register received her baccalaureate degree from Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville, Georgia, and her master's degree in social work from the School of Social Work, Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana. She was immediately employed by the Georgia State Welfare Department where she was called upon to organize USO Travelers Aid at Fort Benning, Georgia. She was subsequently transferred to Norfolk, Virginia, to organize USO Traveler Aid for the naval personnel and their families there. Quickly rising through the ranks to become an executive, she joined the staff of the Norfolk Social Service Bureau and again was commissioned to reorganize that agency. She served as the superintendent of the Social Service Bureau of the department of Public Welfare in Norfolk for 24 years and retired from her professional career on March 1, 1973. Under her leadership her staff increased from 45 to 533 positions and her budget grew from approximately $800,000 to over $27.6 million a year.

In anticipation of her retirement she enrolled in the American Institute of Genealogy Research and upon graduation pursued courses of study in genealogical research from the North Carolina Archives, receiving her board certification as a Certified Genealogist. Recognized for her scholarship, her untiring energy and attention to detail, she became intensely involved in her chosen avocation - genealogy.

Her published works include The Kenan Family (1967); One Branch of the Parrish Family of Bulloch County, Ga.; Bulloch County, Ga., Marriage Records 1796 through 1875; all census records of Bulloch County, Ga., from 1820 through 1880 and Bulloch County, Georgia, Genealogical Source Material (1985). She was a frequent contributing editor of the Georgia Genealogical Magazine.

Mrs. Register was listed in the First Edition of Who's Who of American Women; Fifth Edition of Who's Who in the South and Southwest; 1964 Virginia Lives: Old Dominion Who's Who. She served as District Governor of Quota International (classified club of women executives as Kiwanis); State President of the Virginia League of Local Public Welfare Executives and in 1963 was awarded the Civitan Club's annual award for outstanding public service. She also received the Meritorious Service Award from the City of Norfolk's Department of Public Welfare for 30 years service in the field of social service.

She was a life member of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, State President of the Georgia Society Colonial Dames of the XVII Century, Daughters of American Colonists, Magna Charta Dames, Americans of Royal Descent and others.

Mrs. Register died on April 22, 1985. Her "family" had enlarged to encompass the numerous friends and loved ones that she came to know so well through the channels of the work that she loved.

Composition of the Family of Nathaniel Everet

Nathaniel Everet's wife was Mary but her maiden name is not known to the author. She was living at the time of the deed 2 September 1720 but was dead at the time of the deed 29 October 1744. Children of Nathaniel and Mary Everet:

Mary Everett, born ca 1701
Elizabeth Everett, born ca 1702
Sarah Everett, born ca. 1703
Nathaniel Everett, Jr., b. 1707

These birth dates were arrived at in the following manner: If Nath¹ Everet, Sr., was born ca 1678,¹⁸ he would probably have married at 21 years of age, which would be 1699. He gave land to two sons-in-law 25 March 1718¹⁹ which means that those two daughters had married prior to 25 March 1718. If they were 15 years of age at the time of marriage, this would place the birth of the youngest ca 1703. Nathaniel Everet refers to Mary as his eldest daughter.²⁰ Nathaniel Everet gave the date and place of birth of his son, Nathaniel Everet, in his Will.

Mary Everet, born ca 1701, Chowan Co., N.C.; died 1738;²¹ married Thomas Stubbs who died 1737.²²

Nathaniel Everitt sold to Thomas Stubbs of Chowan Precinct 100 acres joining Benjamin Blount and Zachariah Girkin for 25 lbs. on 16 Feb. 1722; land near Morattock Bridge.²³

Nathaniel Everet was witness to the Will of Thomas Stubbs, Beaufort Co., Jan. 17, 1738, probated Aug. 7, 1737/38, then was executor. Thomas Stubbs named his wife Mary, a son Everitt Stubbs; other sons William, John, Richard; daughters Hannah and Mary. (Dates in Grimes are inconsistent with Minutes of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions.)²⁴ Also a daughter Sarah.

On the first Tuesday in March 1737, the will of Thomas Stubbs was proved in open court by the oath of Sarah Fagans, one of the subscribing evidences.²⁵

The first Tuesday September 1738, the Court ordered on motion of William Stubbs and Thomas Stubbs, two minors, that they might have Nathaniel Everard (Everet) Sr. for their guardian. Nathaniel Everet Sr. having moved that he might have the administration of the estate of his daughter deceased. Granted.²⁶

The first Tuesday of June 1739, William Stubbs, minor, petitioned the Court that Nathaniel Everet Sr. give security for his guardianship in the sum of 1,000 lbs. An account of the sales of the estate of Thomas and Mary Stubbs, deceased, was proved and returned, and ordered filed. An inventory of the estate of Thomas and Mary Stubbs was proved and filed by Nathaniel Everet Sr.²⁷

5 Sept. 1739, the Court ordered that the estate of the late Thomas Stubbs deceased, be divided amongst the children of said Stubbs, and that William Roads, Daniel Garret, Benjamin Blount, be appointed to make a division.²⁸

Elizabeth Everett was born ca 1702, Chowan Co., N.C.²⁹ She married prior to March 25, 1718 to Benjamin Blount, son of Thomas Blount.

Nathaniel Everitt of Morattock in Chowan Prec., planter to Benjamin Blount of the same place, my son-in-law, Planter, 25 Mar. 1718. 5 lbs. current money of N.C., 100 acres called Johnson's Neck, joining Morattock swamp and Haw branch. Wit.: Mathew Casewell, John Worley.³⁰

The Last Will and Testament of Benjamin Blount was dated 1 Feb. 1739 and proved in Court the first Tuesday of June 1740 in Tyrrell Co., N.C. He named his wife Elizabeth; sons: James, Jacob, Edmund, Isaac, and Benjamin who was given the Manor Plantation of his father; daughters Esther, Mary and Sarah. Executors: son Benjamin and wife Elizabeth. Wit.: Ann Hollis and Zachariah Curkin.³¹

Sarah Everett was born ca 1703, Chowan Co., N.C. She married prior to 25 Mch. 1718 to Zachariah Gerkin (also spelled Gurkin, Girkin).

Nathaniel Everitt of Morattock in Chowan Prec. to Zack. Gerkin of the same place, my son-in-law, Planter, 25 Mch. 1718, 5 lbs. for 60 acres, part of Possimon Neck lying in the fork of Haw branch. Wit.: Matt. Casewell (his mark).³²

Names of children of Zachariah Gerkin and wife, Sarah Everett, have not been located.

Nathaniel Everett, Jr., was born 1707 at Kendricks Creek in Chowan Co., N.C. After the death of Nathaniel Everett, Sr., Nathaniel Everett, Jr., is shown as Nathaniel Everett, Sr.³³ The the sake of clarity, he will be referred to as Nathaniel Everett, II.

He was a planter and this shows in real estate transactions. The land and plantation of his father was given to him "by turf and twig" between 1720 and 1744 as reflected by the two instruments of those dates.

The date of his marriage is not known, but he would have been 20 years of age in 1727, so probably married soon after that. His will named his wife as Elizabeth but her maiden name is not known to the compiler.

Nathaniel Everett, II, was appointed along with others, to a jury to lay out the road between Elizabeth Bell's and the Main Road leading to Morratuck Bridge, December 1739.³⁴

Nathaniel Everet, II, proved in court, the sale of land from Francis Ward to Nathaniel Everet, Jr. (111), Sept. 1751.³⁵

1762.³⁶ Nathaniel Everett was appointed to help lay out a road, 5 March

1764.³⁷ Nathaniel Everett was on the Jury of Tyrrell County, 23 March

Nathaniel Everitt, II, made his will in Tyrrell County, N.C., 20 Feb. 1782; it was probated lat Monday July 1782.³⁸

And after her decease the said plantation and all the land thereunto belonging to return to my son Joseph Everitt to him his heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my two grand children the two sons of my son Nathan Everitt, dec'd. The focus of this book is on the descendants of Nathaniel's son, JOHN EVERETT/EVERITT.

Descendants are eligible for Daughters of American Colonists on the line of Nathaniel Everett. Service: "North Carolina, Tyrrell Co. A List of a Foot Company of Soldiers Commanded by Capt. Evan Jones. By Commission Bearing Date the 17th Jany. 1747. For the District between the Bark Poplar Swamp and Welches Creek." This list contains 92 names, including that of Nathaniel Everit. (Located in N. C. State Archives.)

John Everett and his wife, Sarah Fagan

John Everett, the subject of this book, was born in Tyrrell County, North Carolina, 1743,⁴⁵ son of Nathaniel Everett and his wife, Elizabeth.

John Everett was a private in the N.C. Militia for five years during the American Revolution, according to the pension application of his widow, made 3 October 1842. In the course of the war, he was wounded in the shoulder by a rifle ball which remained in his shoulder until his death. This occurred at Betty's Bridge on Downing Creek near Peedee, which she thought to be in N.C. He served under Capt. DeJarnett from N.C.⁴⁶

John Everett married Miss Sarah Fagan ca 1772, probably in Tyrrell County, N.C. She was born 1746, daughter of Bedford Fagan and his wife, Mary.⁴⁷

The application for a pension made by Mrs. Sarah Everett, widow of John Everett, states that the family moved to Georgia from N. C. in 1785. Deeds in Tyrrell Co., N.C., show that he sold his property to Joseph Jones on 4 January 1785. This was proved in Court by his brother-in-law, Richard Hoff.⁴⁸ At that time land which he obtained in Georgia was in Effingham County. His land was cut into Bulloch County when it was created in 1796, and they lived there until their deaths.⁴⁹

The first Justices of the Peace named by the Legislative Assembly to represent Bulloch County were: John Douglas, John Everett, Robert Scott, William McCall and Mark Pridgeon.⁵⁰ Some of the earliest members of the House of Representatives in the State Legislature from Bulloch County were . . . John Everett, and his brother, Jehu.⁵¹

John Everett was a County Commissioner and held that office November 7, 1801 when George Sibbald of Augusta, Georgia, deeded 200 acres to create Statesboro.⁵²

John Everett was Justice of Inferior Court of Bulloch County for several years. The first book of Minutes of the Inferior Court is missing, but in Book X (1815-1843), he is shown as a Justice from January 1815 through May 1819.⁵³ He died in 1820.⁵⁴

John Everett was a large land owner. The book, Index to Headright and Bounty Grants of Georgia 1754-1909, shows that he received the following land grants:

Year	Location and acres	Book
1791	400 acres in Effingham Co.	Bk. VVV, p. 161
1793	400 acres in Effingham Co.	BBBB, p. 565

Other listings for a John Everett are for either his brother, Jehu, or another John Everett from Tyrrell County, N.C., who came to Georgia ca 1800 according to an application for a pension from this second John Everett. He is distinguished from this one by referring to him as the John Everett who died 1840. John Everett, the subject of this book, was in Bulloch County by 1799 when two of these grants were made in Effingham Co.⁵⁵

The following plats are recorded in his name in Bulloch County Plat Book A.⁵⁶

Warrant Issued	Surveyed	Acres	Location
7/20/1801	6/20/1802	200	Mill Creek
5/6/1804	8/30/1805	900	Belchers Mill Creek
10/6/1806	12/30/1806	300	Mill Creek
3/6/1814	6/12/1814	40	Mill Creek
1/7/1819	1/10/1819	20	Belchers Mill Creek

John Everett died November 17, 1820. His widow gave the date of November 17 in her application for a pension. The Minutes of Inferior Court of Bulloch County, Book X, pp. 30, shows that the will was probated December 4, 1820.⁵⁷

Will of John Everett:

In the name of God Amen. I, John Everitt of the State of Georgia, County of Bulloch, being in perfect mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament as follows: (to Wit)

1st. I give and bequeath (after my just debts are paid), all my property both real and personal that remains at my decease unto my beloved wife Sarah Everitt to hold and enjoy during her natural life or widowhood.

2nd. I will and desire that at the marriage or death of the said Sarah Everitt that the whole of the above mentioned property be divided into seven equal shares or parts with the exception of such property as I have already disposed of or may hereafter dispose of either by deed or otherwise which said parts or shares shall belong to the following heirs, viz: Joshua Everitt, Josiah Everitt, Enoch Everitt, Jehu Everitt, Aaron Everitt, John Everitt and my daughter Hannah's two children, John and Sarah, to have one of said shares.

Lastly, I constitute and appoint my sons Joshua, Jehu and Aaron Everitt my Executors to this my last will and testament utterly disallowing any other former will by me made, ratifying this as my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty ninth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty. Signed and sealed in the presence of

Wm. Collins
Margaret McCall
Ely Kennedy

(Signed) John Everitt⁵⁸

Since all property was left to his widow for her natural life, the estate was not divided until after her death May 24, 1851.⁵⁹

Mrs. Sarah (Fagan) Everett outlived her husband and all seven of her children, being 105 years of age at her death. She lived alone.⁶⁰

Mrs. Sarah Everett made a noncupative will as follows: Bulloch County, Georgia, Book S-A, pp. 251-252.

We, Hannah Waters, Thomas Waters Sr. and Sarah Ann Brannen were present on Tuesday, the 20th day of May 1851, at the residence of Sarah Everett, a widow woman before and at the time of her death, about four days before her death in perfect possession of her mental faculties she called Sarah Ann Brannen as much as twice and Sarah Ann went to her with myself and the old man, meaning Thomas Waters Sr. She said I want Ann, meaning Ann Brown, the daughter of John Barber of said county, to have all the money in the house, then she said Mr. Waters you have got the notes and keep them until you collect the money and make up $200.00 to Ann and then give Sarah Ann Brannen the balance. This 31st day of May 1851.

(Signed) Hannah Waters, Thomas Waters
and Sarah Ann Brannen

This noncupative will was probated July 8, 1851 and Thomas Waters was appointed administrator.⁶¹

The above will was promptly challenged in Court, and Court appointed her grandson, Jehu Everett, son of Joshua, as administrator of the estate of John and Sarah Everett. Receipts are found in Book 8A, pp. 18-22. Office of Probate Judge, beginning December 29, 1852. The following is a summary of the settlement of the estates.

Descendants of John Everett are eligible to join DAR or SAR on his line. The following is her SERVICE RECORD:

John Everett served as Private in the Militia of North Carolina. He was wounded in the shoulder by a rifle ball which remained in his shoulder until his death. This occurred at Betty's Bridge on Downing Creek near Peedee (river) in N.C. He served under Capt. DeJarnett from N.C. and in company with James Pickett; also with Col. Wade when he retreated. (Reference: Pension application #3404 by his widow; affidavit in application describing his service.)

Caution: Do not use the sketch from Pioneers of Wiregrass Georgia by Folks Huxford, Vol. IV, pp. 84-85, because two men by the name of John Everett have been combined as though one man--our John Everett or Everitt from Tyrrell County, N.C., and the other from Martin County, N.C., son of William Everett. This error has been accepted by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, and by Huxford Genealogical Society Quarterly.

The children of John Everett and his wife, Sarah Fagan, were:

Joshua Everett, b. 27 Sept. 1774, Tyrrell County, N.C.
 Josiah Everett, b. ca 1776, Tyrrell County, N.C.
 Enoch Everett, b. 6 July 1779, Tyrrell County, N.C.

John Fagan Everett, b. 15 Mch. 1784, Tyrrell County, N.C.

Aaron Everitt, b. ca 1786, Effingham County, Georgia (now Bulloch County, Georgia)

JOSHUA EVERETT

11. Joshua Everett or Everitt, the eldest child of John Everett and his wife Sarah Fagan, was born 27 Sept. 1774,¹ Tyrrell Co., N.C.² He moved with his parents to Effingham Co., Ga., in 1785.³ His descendants who remained in Bulloch Co. use the spelling EVERETT, but with a few exceptions, those who moved to the western part of the state as new land was developed, use the spelling EVERITT.

Joshua Everett married 1 Oct. 1797 in Bulloch Co. to Jane Carter.⁴ She was born in N.C. 12 Oct. 1780⁵ but satisfactory proof has not been found of her parents.

Joshua Everett owned a great deal of land. The Index to Headright and Bounty Grants shows the following land grants:⁶

Year	County	Book	Page	Acres
1818	Bulloch	M 5	125	150
1818	Bulloch	M 5	124	700

1820	Bulloch	N 5	182	47

1836	Bulloch	R 5	486	677
1836	Bulloch	R 5	515, 516	868 and 628
1837	Bulloch	S 5	406	115
1837	Tattnall	S 5	482	437

The first grant in the name of Joshua Everett has been omitted because it is dated 1797 in Effingham Co. and this Joshua Everett was in Bulloch Co. at that time. It was probably for a son of Jehu Everett, brother to our John.⁷

In addition to grants, Joshua Everett purchased land at Sheriff's sales. Example: Sheriff's deed from Robert McCall, Sheriff, to Joshua Everett, 1449 acres for $11.56 1/2, land of Enoch Fagan.⁸

Joshua Everett was commissioned an Ensign in Bulloch Co., 25 Nov. 1806.⁹ He was commissioned Captain of the Militia for the 45th District of Bulloch Co. 18 Feb. 1809.¹⁰ The 45th District was known as the Clubhouse District, and is that part of Bulloch Co. which became Candler Co. when it was formed in 1914.

Joshua Everett was Justice of the Inferior Court of Bulloch Co. Although Justices were not listed in all sessions of Court, he is shown in the Minutes as follows: 1 Feb. 1819; 1 Nov. 1819; 3 Jan. 1820; 6 Feb. 1820; 3 July 1820; 4 Dec. 1820; 2 July 1821; and 3 Nov. 1821.¹¹

Joshua Everett's name is on the list of members of Lower Lotts Creek Primitive Baptist Church, Bulloch Co., March 1833, but the disposition shows he was "Excluded."¹²

An analysis of pre-1850 census records of Joshua Everett and family was made, comparing it with Bible records.¹³ All census records are of Bulloch County, Georgia. 1790, 1800 and 1810 census records burned.

Joshua Everett died in Bulloch Co., Ga., 14 Feb. 1866 and is buried in the Everett Cemetery, then Bulloch Co., now Candler Co.¹⁷

After the death of Joshua Everett his widow, Jane (Carter) Everett, continued to live in the home. In the 1850 census she is living with her youngest daughter Permelia and her husband Hampton Williams and their daughter one month of age.¹⁸ In the 1860 census she is living alone, 79 years of age, but next door to her son Jehu.¹⁹ Hampton Williams and wife Permelia Everett had moved to Thomas Co., Ga., where several of her brothers had preceded them.

Jane (Carter) Everett's children apparently became concerned about their mother living alone as she moved to Thomas Co. after the 1860 census. Descendants of her son Josiah J. state that she lived with him; and descendants of her oldest daughter Sarah Young, state that she died at the Young home Feb. 8, 1864. She is buried in the Everitt Cemetery, Boston, Thomas Co., Ga.²⁰

THIRD GENERATION

111. Sarah Carter Everitt was the eldest child of Joshua Everett and wife Jane (Carter) Everitt, called "Jincy."²² Sarah was born 7 Apr. 1799, Bulloch Co., Ga.²³ and died 14 Apr. 1876, in Thomas Co., Ga. She married 25 Mch. 1819, Bulloch Co., Ga., to Michael Young.²⁴ He was born 16 Jan. 1797, Screven Co., Ga., son of William Young and his wife Mary Henderson.²⁵ He died 24 Aug. 1856, Thomas Co., Ga.²⁶ The family moved from Bulloch Co. to Thomas Co. about 1826 as new land was opening up in that area. Michael Young was an influential man in Thomas Co. He served as State Senator in 1830.²⁷ Their children were:

- 1111 James Everitt Young, b. 20 Mch. 1821, Bulloch Co., Ga.
- 1112 America Young, b. 23 Apr. 1823, Bulloch Co., Ga.
- 1113 Remer Young, b. 5 Apr. 1826
- 1114 William Joshua Young, b. 18 Oct., 1828, Thomas Co., Ga.
- 1115 Mary Jane Young, b. 29 Sept. 1830, Thomas Co., Ga.
- 1116 Thomas Jones Young, b. 6 Oct. 1832, Thomas Co., Ga.
- 1117 John Carter Young, b. 15 July 1835, Thomas Co., Ga.;
died 24 June 1853, Thomas Co., Ga.
- 1118 Sarah Everitt Young, b. 17 Dec. 1837, Thomas Co., Ga.
- 1119 Michael Henderson Young, b. 13 June 1840, Thomas Co., Ga.

112. John Carter Everett was born 1 Sept. 1801, Bulloch Co., Ga.; died 30 Nov. 1835, Bulloch Co., Ga.²⁸ married 27 Feb. 1824, Bulloch Co. to Elizabeth "Eliza" Ellis,²⁹ born 26 May 1803, N.C., daughter of Benjamin Ellis and wife Absalean (thought by some descendants to be Mincey). She died 24 July 1851.³⁰

Although John C. Everett did not live long (34 years) he took his place as a responsible citizen of the community at an early age as shown by the Minutes of the Inferior Court of Bulloch Co., Ga.: (1) July 5, 1824, the Court ordered that Henderson Fryer, John Anderson, John Miller, John C. Everett and Michael Young be appointed to appraise the estate of Jacob Putch, deceased. (2) Sept. 4, 1825, "Appeared in open Court, Jacob Mincey and John C. Everett, (who) produced the last will and testament of Philip Mincey, deceased, which was legally proven before the Court and said Jacob Mincey, and John C. Everett were qualified as Executors to the same." (3) May 3, 1830, John C. Everett and Jacob Mincey, executors of the estate of Philip Mincey, deceased, made application to the Court for letters of dismission from their executorship. (4) Sept. 2, 1833, Ordered that John C. Everett, Samuel Slater and William Goodman be discharged from the Securityship of the estate of John E. McCall.³¹

John Carter Everett died 30 Nov. 1835, Bulloch Co., Ga. On 7 March 1836 the Court ordered that Josiah J. Everitt and Benjamin Ellis be appointed administrators on the estate of John C. Everett, deceased.³² An Inventory and appraisal of the estate of John C. Everett, deceased, was made 30 Apr. 1836 by Benjamin Turner, W. B. Williams, and Jacob Nevill.³³ 12 Jan. 1846, the Court ordered that Garrett Williams, Edmond Brannen, Benjamin

Turner, Bazzel Jones and William B. Williams be appointed dividers of the estate of John C. Everett, which estate is now in the hands of Benjamin Ellis.³⁴ Elizabeth Everett (widow) was appointed guardian of Margaret and John C. Everett, Jr., minors.

Heirs in the estate of John C. Everett were: Elizabeth Everett, widow; Henry Tillman (who married daughter Susan); James Tillman (who married daughter Sarah; Elizabeth Everett for her wards Margaret and John C. Everett, Jr.³⁵

John C. Everett is shown in the 1830 census of Bulloch Co. with three children under five years of age (2f and 1 m); and three slaves. His widow Elizabeth is shown in the 1840 census of Bulloch Co. with four daughters, one son and six slaves. Also in the home is her mother, Absalem Ellis, and she is living next door to her father-in-law, Joshua Everett, and near her father Benjamin Ellis. The 1850 census of Bulloch Co. shows her mother and her youngest child, John C. Everett, Jr., as the only ones left with her.³⁶

Elizabeth Everett died 14 July 1851. The Court appointed Jonathan B. Brewton as administrator of her estate. Appraisement of the estate was made 25 Sept. 1851 by Bazell Jones, Benjamin Turner, and Silas E. Bowen.³⁷

Distribution of the estate of Elizabeth Everett was made 7 June 1854 as follows:³⁸ (1) Benjamin Ellis, guardian of John C. Ellis, minor and heir of the estate; (2) James Tillman (m. daughter Sarah); (3) Henry Tillman, guardian of Elizabeth Tillman (daughter of Henry Tillman and his first wife Susan Everett, deceased, daughter of John C. and Elizabeth Everett).

Children of John Carter Everett and wife Elizabeth Ellis were:³⁹

- 1121 Sarah Everett, b. 5 Dec. 1824, Bulloch Co., Ga.
- 1122 Susan Everett, b. 5 May 1826, Bulloch Co., Ga.
- 1123 Josiah Everett, b. 5 Mch. 1828, Bulloch Co., Ga.; died May 1837
- 1124 Margaret Everett, b. 30 Oct. 1830, Bulloch Co., Ga.
- 1125 Missouri Everett, b. 5 June 1834; d. 14 Oct. 1843
- 1126 John Carter Everett, Jr., b. 28 Feb. 1836, Bulloch Co., Ga.

114. Josiah Jefferson Everitt (Joshua², John¹) was born 10 Nov. 1806, Bulloch Co., Ga.;⁴⁰ died 26 Feb. 1873, Thomas Co., Ga.;⁴¹ married 19 Jan. 1832, Tattnell Co., Ga., to Harriet Archer of Tattnell Co.⁴² Identity of her parents has not been proven in spite of extensive research by a descendant, Mrs. May Walton of Augusta, Ga. The 1820 and 1830 censuses of Tattnell Co., Ga., show two Archer families living there at that time: James K. Archer and Thomas Archer. Descendants believe her mother was a Bryant but proof is lacking.

Josiah J. and Harriet Everitt lived in Tattnell Co. for seven years after their marriage. His name has been found in Tax Registers and other court house records.

On August 26, 1839, he bought Lot #79, 400 acres in District 14 of Thomas Co., Ga., from William and John Dugger for $1,645. On the same date he also bought Lot #80, 450 acres in District 14 from Isaac Dugger for $400.⁴³ Other property was bought and sold or transferred to sons of his children in the years which followed.

Just when the house which still stands was built is uncertain, but was probably between 1845 and 1850. Mrs. Walton has a picture of the house taken about 1880. On the front stoop are John Barber Everitt, son of Josiah and Harriet Everitt, and his wife and two children, Lena and Walter. John B. Everitt inherited the house after his mother's death in 1878. He and his family lived there and operated the plantation until he sold the property to his great nephew, Tom Mardre (grandson of John's sister Sarah Everett and her husband, Robert Burton Mardre). John B. Everitt and his wife Amelia Brown, moved to Boston, Ga., in Thomas Co. where they lived until they became too old to live alone. They then moved to Louisville, Ga., to live with their daughter, Lena Everitt Phillips. Lena's daughter, Mary Phillips Tinkler (Mrs. Sam A. Tinkler of Greenwood, S.C.) has the original picture of the house Josiah J. Everitt built and she also has his family Bible with family records of the births, marriages, and deaths of the twelve children of Josiah J. and Harriet (Archer) Everitt.

Josiah J. Everitt died at home of pneumonia 26 Feb. 1873.⁴⁴ His obituary from a Thomasville newspaper stated: "Maj. Josiah J. Everitt, a well-known, popular citizen of this county, died at his residence near the Florida line at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, the 26th ult. of pneumonia. Maj. Everitt was a successful farmer of indomitable energy and industry, and was noted for his honest simplicity of character, perseverance and good judgement. He has represented Thomas Co. in the Legislature, was a warm supporter of the County Agricultural Society and the South Georgia Agricultural & Mechanical Fair Assn., both of which he has represented with credit to their State Associations. He will be missed by these Associations, by his neighbors and by his fellow citizens throughout the county, who sincerely regret his death." Another clipping preserved by the family states that he was "a consistent, devoted and useful member of the Primitive Baptist Church. He loved the house of God and was never absent from his place unless providentially hindered."

Josiah J. Everitt was a Representative in the State Legislature in 1857-1858. He was a Justice of the Inferior Court from 1857-1861. How he got the title of Major is not known, but was probably from his Civil War activities. He was a member of the home guard, being too old to serve in the regular Confederate Army. However, his son, John B. Everitt, served during the entire war until he was wounded in Va. and was sent home on sick furlough shortly before the surrender in 1865.

Only one of Josiah J. Everitt's sons lived to adulthood, but five of his daughters grew up and married in Thomas Co. or Brooks Co., which was created from Thomas Co. and was near the plantation. One daughter, Mary, died about a year after her marriage and is buried in the family cemetery on the plantation, along with her parents, her paternal grandmother, Jane Carter Everitt, and several other relatives. Four of the children of Josiah and Harriet Everitt died within a few weeks of each other in the summer of 1856.

An inventory of the estate of Josiah J. Everitt⁴⁵ shows that he was quite well-to-do at the time of his death in 1873, even though it was relatively soon after the close of the Civil War. He owned 1677 acres of land in Lots 78, 79, 80, 105 and 106, in addition to stock in three railroads, $760 in cash and much farm equipment and animals. The Tax Digest prior to 1865 has not been searched, but he undoubtedly had a large number of slaves. His son, John B. Everitt, was the administrator of his estate.

Josiah Jefferson Everitt and wife Harriet (Archer) Everitt had the following children:

- 1141 Jane Everitt, b. 10 Jan. 1833
- 1142 William Everitt, b. 31 Jan. 1834; died 16 Apr. 1837

The above sketch and all of his descendants was researched and compiled by Mrs. May Walton, a descendant who lives 2017 Richmond Ave., Augusta, Ga., 30904. Full credit is given her for this section of the book, as well as some others.

- 115. Aaron Barber Everett, b. 20 June 1809,⁴⁶ Bulloch Co., Ga.; d. by 1849 when his widow married 2nd. He married 28 Jan. 1836 in Tattnall Co., Ga., to Sarah Tillman.⁴⁷ Sarah Tillman was born 12 July 1818, Tattnall Co., Ga. After his death, Mrs. Sarah (Tillman) Everitt m/2 on 5 May 1849, Tattnall Co., Ga. to James Perry Collins.⁴⁸ He was born 14 Feb. 1815, Tattnall Co., son of Josiah Collins and wife Susannah. He died 30 June 1891, Tattnall Co., and she died 19 Mch. 1867, Tattnall Co. Their children are not Everitt descendants.
- 116. Cassandra Carter Everett was born 12 Sept. 1811,⁴⁹ in Bulloch Co., Ga., died 4 Oct. 1864, Thomas Co., Ga.; m. 2 June 1831, Tattnall Co., Ga., to Joseph Isaiiah Tillman, Sr., as his 2nd wife. He was b. 6 Jan. 1792, Jones Co., N.C.; d. 6 May 1848, Tattnall Co., Ga. He was the son of John Tillman and his 2nd wife Sarah Edgerton. The 1st wife of Joseph Isaiiah Tillman was Catherine Chewning, b. 23 Feb. 1796; d. 10 Sept. 1830.⁵⁰ Their children became step children for Cassandra Everitt to raise. They were: (1) James M. Tillman, b. 8 Oct. 1817; (2) Henry Tillman, b. July 1820. Cassandra moved to Thomas Co., Ga., by 1850 census,⁵¹ probably after the death of her husband in 1848.

Cassandra Carter Everett and husband Joseph Isaiiah Tillman had the following children:

- 1161 Eliza Everett Tillman, b. 11 May 1834, Tattnall Co., Ga.; d. 3 Jan. 1910; m/1 to Judge Charles E. Groover; m/2 to Capt. John C. Reynolds
- 1162 Cassandre Tillman, b. 15 Jan. 1837, Tattnall Co., Ga.; d. 27 July 1903, Tattnall Co.; m. Capt. Mariner J. Cullpepper, b. May 1832; d. 15 Aug. 1872
- 1163 Joseph Isaiiah Tillman, Jr., b. 26 Aug. 1838, Tattnall Co., Ga.
- 1164 John Tillman, b. 4 Apr. 1845, Tattnall Co., Ga.
- 117. Elizabeth Fagan Everett, b. 9 Nov. 1813, Bulloch Co., Ga.; d. 21 Nov. 1880, Bulloch Co., Ga.; m. 27 Feb. 1834, Bulloch Co. to Benjamin Ellis.⁵² He was born 23 Sept. 1809 in N.C.; d. 16 Mch. 1879, Bulloch Co., Ga. His mother, Abcilla Ellis (maiden name thought by descendants to be Mincey), moved to Georgia with the family as she is found in census records with her children. The Court ordered that Josiah J. Everitt and Benjamin Ellis be appointed administrators of the estate of John C. Everitt.⁵³ Benjamin Ellis and Eliza Fagan Everett had the following children:
 - 1171 Jane Ellis, b. 21 Apr. 1835,⁵⁴ Bulloch Co., Ga.
