1792 - Two horses ---- $240.00

There is no evidence that the horses were taken by Creek Indians. The witnesses express their belief, but do not state any facts, except that many of the trails, when horses were stolen, led to the Creek nation. The evidence is not brought down to this case.

Disallowed.

Eady Reid

Georgia) Personally appeared before me one of the Justices of peace Walton County (William Melton and being duly sworn and saith on oath that he was well acquainted with Davis Harison formerly of Green County now deceased and I also recollect very well that the said Harison had two likely horses taken or stolen from him sometime between 1790 and 1794 and as I did followed many of their trails towards the Creek Nation and one of them to one of their towns and burned the town and took seven horses from them that was taken from the citizens of Green County but did not get Mr. Harison's horses and I also was acquainted with Lydid Read and Edy Reid which were formerly the daughters of Davis Harison deceased and I believe them to be the legal heirs of Davis Harison deceased.

Sworn to and subscribed this 25th July 1855.
